

Edmodo Spotlight Where Resources Take Center Stage

With hundreds of lessons to plan, we know you're pressed for time. Edmodo Spotlight helps you discover the best educational materials – so you can spend your time teaching, not searching.

"Teachers teach better when they can see what others are doing and share tips and resources. I was already a fan of the Edmodo network, but Edmodo Spotlight has taken my passion for teaching to new heights!"

Mary E. Massey,
Sixth grade science teacher
Myrtle Beach, SC

Helping you improve student learning, Edmodo Spotlight is your next destination to:

Find out what makes other teachers successful.

With activities, worksheets, games, and more, it's easy to discover something for your grade level and subject area.

Gather content for your own classroom.

Create a Collection within Spotlight, or add a resource directly to your Edmodo Library and assign directly to your Groups.

Let your successes shine.

Share your expertise by uploading your own original content and making a positive impact on someone else's progress.

We know your students keep you busy, but finding exceptional materials doesn't have to.
